

30 Famous Francophones

Gabrielle Roy, writer (Manitoba)

Céline Dion, singer (Québec)

Antonine Maillet, writer (New Brunswick)

René Lévesque, journalist and premier (Québec)

Roch Voisine, singer (New Brunswick)

Jeanne Sauvé, journalist and governor general (Saskatchewan)

George-Étienne Cartier, politician and Father of Confederation (Québec)

Félix Leclerc, singer and poet (Québec)

Henri Bourassa, journalist and politician (Québec)

Louis-Joseph Papineau, politician and Patriote (Québec)

Maurice Richard, hockey player (Québec)

Denys Arcand, filmmaker (Québec)

Phil Comeau, director (Nova Scotia)

Daniel Poliquin, writer and translator (Ontario)

Émile Nelligan, poet (Québec)

Herménégilde Chiasson, multidisciplinary artist and lieutenant-governor (New Brunswick)

Pierre Elliott Trudeau, prime minister (Québec)

Paul Desmarais, businessman (Ontario)

Michel Tremblay, writer (Québec)

Julie Payette, astronaut (Québec)

Lucille Teasdale, doctor (Québec)

Louise Arbour, High Commissioner for Human Rights (Québec)

René Bourque, hockey player (Alberta)

Roy Dupuis, actor and activist (Ontario)

Louis Riel, Métis leader (Manitoba)

Dany Laferrière, writer (Haïti-Québec)

Jean-Marc Vallée, filmmaker (Québec)

Roméo LeBlanc, journalist and governor general (New Brunswick)

Hubert Reeves, astrophysicist (Québec)

Jean Paul Riopelle, painter (Québec)

